

For the attention of Shot Peener News

Blastman Robotics Ltd have secured a major contract to supply a fully automated abrasive blast cleaning system to AYO TVT Torzhok Russia. The fully automated Robotic Crane type system uses the very latest technology to accurately and repetitively blast clean train passenger carriage's after manufacture, and before the painting procedure takes place. Blastman Robotics Ltd scope of supply is to install their proven fully automatic B20C Robot in an enclosed and extracted blast cleaning chamber. Blastman will provide the train carriage work handling system that presents the carriage to the B20C Robot and remove it from the chamber after the blast cleaning operation is complete. Also Blastman are providing the Air compressor unit in this turnkey contract. The completet line will be commissioned and in full production before the end of 2006.

Sender: Mr Hannu Hernesniemi
Vice President
Blastman Robotics Ltd
www.blastman.fi