SALES ENGINEERS IN FOR SEMINAR . . .

A three-day seminar for Steel Industry Products was held this week for all Equipment Sales Engineers, Account Sales Engineers with major steel industry responsibilities and Field Sales Management. The seminar covered application of steel descaling equipment in the industries served, available hardware from Wheelabrator and economic justification. Pictured are several of the men who participated in the presentations. (Above l. to r.): Del Evans, Industry Manager-Steel; Curt West, Manager of Product Engineering; and Barry Selack, Account and Equipment Sales Engineer.

AND FROM WHEELABRATOR CORPORATION OF CANADA . . .

Ed Stoltz, MCS Manager-Equipment Sales, addresses the seminar attendees on the financial justification of Wire Rod Descaling.

IT TAKES a strong man to be gentle.

ANNIVERSARY TIME . . . Celebrating Company anniversaries tomorrow are: ROBERT B. QUALLS (Maintenance-Welder) — and it's a biggie! — 35 years; and 15 years for RALPH M. HOLDEMAN (Bridge Type Crane Operator-Steel Shop).

SURFACE PREPARATION was the subject, Purdue University was the place, and Fred Baldauf, Industry Manager-Transportation, the speaker at the Metal Fabricating Institute held this week. Sponsored by the publishers of Metal Fabricating News, the Institutes are held annually throughout the country and Canada to promote continuing education for industry.

HEAL THYSELF DOESN'T APPLY . . . Americans must love their doctors, for more than a billion people visit them annually. Women average six trips, while men only four. Dentists are even more popular, with more than half the population visiting them each year.

KEEP AN OPEN MIND . . . but not so open that whatever you put into it falls out.

HALLOWEEN DUE OCTOBER 31 . . . TRICK OR TREAT!

Yes, it's that time again — All Hallows Eve, when the Weird Sisters roam the jet waves on their sweepers, and the satellites and other mundanities make room for goblins, hobgoblins, doublegoblins and several other nonorbital guests.

And, if you're not well stocked in sundry goodies come this night, you may find "calling cards" decorating your property, both mobile and immobile. So store in a vast supply of sweets and set the chain bolt on your front door. IT'S HALLOWEEN!

"It's vegetarian vegetable."

REMINDERS FROM PERSONNEL . . . The Indiana county in which you are residing on January 1 of each year determines whether you will be required to pay a county option tax during that year.

If you have moved, or will be moving, from an Indiana county that has not adopted the county option tax into a county that has (or vice versa) anytime this year, please go to the Personnel Office in November or December to sign a new Exemption Tax Certificate.

AND . . . Employees who have dependent, unmarried children, (age 19 to 25) may cover them under Blue Cross-Blue Shield as overage dependents. To be covered, the child must be enrolled on a special enrollment application. To be eligible the dependent must meet all of the following qualifications: "Dependent, unmarried children to age 25 will be covered under the family plan. Such children to be eligible must be unmarried, legally residing with, and dependent on the employee for more than half their support as defined by the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, and must either qualify in the current year for dependency tax status or have been reported as a dependent on the employee's most recent federal income tax return."

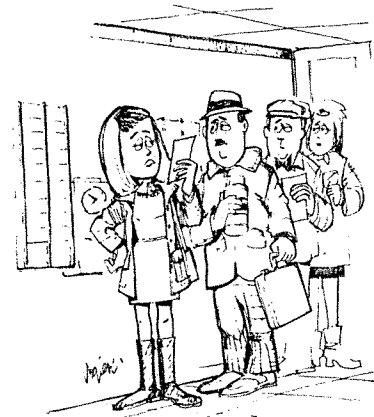

Any employees desiring to enroll or to re-enroll such dependents must report to the Personnel Office each year prior to December 1. They will be required to complete a special enrollment form and attest to the dependency status of the individual. Field personnel may write to the Personnel Office requesting the special enrollment form.

ONE OF LIFE'S GREATEST MYSTERIES is how that idiot who married your daughter can be the father of the smartest grandchildren in the world.

DON'T FORGET TO APPLY . . . Any employee or child of an employee who will be eligible to enroll in college in the Fall of next year has the opportunity to apply for the Verne E. Minich "Founder" Scholarship (at Purdue University) or the Otto A. Pfaff Scholarship (at the University at Notre Dame). Application must be made before JANUARY 1. Check with our Personnel Office. Field personnel may write for further information.
