WHEELABRATOR CHIEF ADDRESSES IOC ATTENDEES . . .

Michael D. Dingman, Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of WFI, told his international audience last Thursday that not only is the sharing of ideas beneficial for company representatives, but also serves to remind the public that "technology doesn't begin and end in America."

TOMORROW MARKS 15 years of company service for RICHARD L. BANACKA (Millwright-Maintenance, Plant 2) and BOBBIE D. HAMBRICK (Machine Repair-Maintenance, Plant 1). Congratulations Dick and Bobbie! AND, belated congratulations to JOHN P. RICHARDSON (Vice President-General Manager, Abrasive Finishing Co., Gardena, California) who celebrated 25 years August 25.

PROMOTIONS . . . CONGRATULATIONS TO:

ROMANE RICKELS promoted from Special Blast Design Engineer-Engineering to Project Engineer-Marketing.

PHYLLIS KOONTZ promoted from Literature Clerk-Office Services to Order Clerk-Inventory Control.

HAZEL JONES promoted from Order Clerk-Inventory Control to Secretary-Product Development.

SATISFIED CUSTOMERS ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT PART OF OUR BUSINESS.

SWINGING AND SLUGGING . . . Home run leaders in the current Account Sales contest are DAVE BUNCE, Central Region, with 53 sales of wheel tune-up kits; BEN STROUD, West Central Region, with 38; and AL SONTAG, West Central Region, with 36. JERRY MADDERN is coming on strong with 34 sales — the biggest single month's performance to date.

SCHOOLMASTER Gene Tarabek and his group of Wheelabrator experts conducted the third of the four annually-held Operating and Maintenance Schools Monday and Tuesday. 34 customers, representing 21 companies, were the enthusiastic students.

IN NEW ORLEANS, earlier this week, were Alan Van Huffel, Product Manager-Portable Systems and Duke Mallory, Manager, Technical Development-Marketing, to address the joint meeting of ASTM (American Society for Testing Materials) and UNCWC (Utilities Nuclear Coating Works Committee). Duke and Al discussed Centrifugal Blast Cleaning Systems — emphasizing the development and use of the Blastrac systems. Duke also attended Technical Committee Sessions. The committee is working to publish manuals and specs for Steel and Concrete Surface Preparation and Coating work in Nuclear Power Generating Facilities.

RECENTLY ELECTED to Michiana Data Processing Management Association's five-man Board of Directors is PAUL SIMPSON, Director of Management Information Systems.

NOMINEE FOR "WOMAN OF THE YEAR" is John Bergh's daughter, Alice Nuckles of Stevenspoint, Wisconsin. Alice, mother of a son and a daughter, has been active in many civic organizations and volunteer groups, particularly in the field of geriatrics.

NOSTALGIA isn't what it used to be.

DINE AND DANCE at the Athletic Association Annual Dinner Dance, Saturday, October 22, B.K. Club. Dinner 7:00 P.M. (dinner tickets sold in advance only!), Dancing 9:00 P.M. ONLY $8.00 per couple — see your AA rep now!

A GOOD NEIGHBOR is a fellow who smiles at you over the back fence but doesn't climb over it.

ON THE JOB . . .

CHARLES J. MOON, Shakeout-Foundry, will celebrate 23 years of company service in February. Charlie resides in Penn Township. He and his wife, Lois, have raised two sons and two daughters and have one grandchild. He lists travel, fishing and gardening as interests.

LUCILLE I. SEIDER, Secretary-Export, has 14 years of company service. This enthusiastic and talented lady plays the organ, sings in the church choir, sews, wallpapers and paints! When not discovering new restaurants, Lucy and husband, Jack, are busy with their new interest — ceramics. Lucy and Jack have raised three sons and have two grandsons. Lucy, a former active member of Business and Professional Women, is currently the Office Board Member of the Julianna Club.

ON THE SPORTS SCENE . . .

TUESDAY BOWLING LEAGUE — Still holding first place after four weeks is Balcrank (H. Love, R. Pflugner, W. Young, J. Downing, O. Campbell). High Team for 3 games: Stockroom (B. Trycko, C. Bargo, R. Celie, J. Medich, G. Scott). High Team Game: Stockroom. High Individual 3 Game Series: B. Trycko (633) and High Individual Game: B. Trycko (244). 200 Games for the week: R. Rothy (215-213), H.
