ORGANIZATION CHANGES . . .

To more closely integrate our manufacturing operations and to strengthen our materials organization, systems and procedures, the reporting relationship for Balcrank manufacturing has been changed.

Specifically, Balcrank Assembly, Buffing and Polishing, Plating, Painting, Presses, and the Rubber Bench area are now part of Plant 1 Manufacturing under Jerry McNamer, Manufacturing Manager.

The Materials organization, headed by Jules Kneitel, will continue to have responsibility for all Production Planning and Control, Inventory Control, Shipping, Receiving, Stores, Traffic and Purchasing for all Plant 1 product lines.

The following organizational changes in Materials permit concentration of effort in production control, systems and procedures on all product lines on an integrated basis, and will result in improved control of inventories and customer orders over the long term: Bob Pflugner, Manager-Shipping, Receiving, Warehousing and Transportation; Jud McKinley, Manager-Purchasing; Larry Wilcox, Manager-Production Control; Chuck Kwasny, Surplus Utilization Administrator; and Walt Meckley, Jr., Manager-Materials Systems.

Manufacturing changes in assignments include Bob Baker, Supervisor of Polishing, Plating, Painting and Balcrank Presses, reporting to Jerry Margraf; Paul Crabtree, Supervisor of Balcrank Assembly reporting to Bill Cholasinski; responsibility for the Rubber Bench and Rotary Screen Assembly areas will be assumed by Gene Rumpfelt, Supervisor of Elevator and Dust Collector Assembly.

ERNIE GIBSON, DENNY JOHNSON — SALESMEN-OF-THE-MONTH

In September we shipped the first machine of a large vibratory equipment order to Chrysler Corporation, as the result of a great team sales effort by Ernie Gibson (r) and Denny Johnson (l). Tom Mott, Regional Sales Manager, says, "There is no question that this was a total selling job utilizing every sales tool available. Ernie did his homework, probed to discover problems, while Denny, along with Mishawaka people, developed solutions and benefits." This is the way to earn Salesman-of-the-Month recognition. Congratulations to Denny and Ernie!
