WHEELABRATOR-FRYE ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS . . .

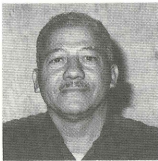

Bob Schalliol presents awards to Mark W. Leblang, recipient of the Otto A. Pfaff Scholarship and Bradley DeLaruelle, recipient of the Verne E. Minich "Founders" Scholarship. Looking on are Harold Schulte, Scholarship Chairman and Ed Sullivan, Committee member. (center) Mark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard G. Leblang, is a 1978 graduate of Clay High School. Mark's father, Bernard, is Superintendent, Production and Inventory Control-Balcrank. (right) A 1978 graduate of Mishawaka High School, Bradley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard DeLaruelle. Bradley's dad is a Furnace Mason-Plant 2.

Bradley plans to study Pharmacy and Engineering at Purdue University. Ranking 14th scholastically in a class of 374 seniors, he belonged to National Honor Society and was a member of the golf team. Mark will attend the University of Notre Dame where he plans to study Architecture. He ranked 6th scholastically in a class of 421 seniors, played basketball and baseball and was a member of National Honor Society.

The scholarships may be renewed for three additional years with the approval and recommendations of the Division's Scholarship Committee.

GILLAM BROTHERS CELEBRATE 25 YEARS OF COMPANY SERVICE . . .

Congratulations to ACE GILLAM (l), Material Handler-Plant 2 and DUANE GILLAM (r), Overhead Crane-Plant 2 who attained 25 years of company service May 6. Members of a Wheelabrator family team, brother Arthur celebrated 25 years of company service last month! AND congratulations to the following personnel with 10 years of service this month: ERNEST M. YOUNG, Machine Repair-Maintenance, Plant 1 (May 6); RANDALL C. DeCRANE, Radial Drill Operator-Machine Shop (May 8); EDWARD E. DRUELINGER, Maintenance Electrician-Plant 2 (May 8); and OTIS SIZEMORE, Utility Man-Foundry (May 13).

NEW FACES . . . Welcome aboard to: Joyce J. Poland, Light Drill Operator-Machine Shop; Richard A. Isza, Millwright-Maintenance, Plant 2; Harry M. Weaver, Arc Welder-Steel Shop; Dennis R. Beavo, Verson Break Operator-Steel Shop; Roland E. Halterman, Spot Welder-Steel Shop; Joseph L. Hunt, Radial Drill Operator-Steel Shop; Cindylu Konanz, Jigger and Small Shear-Steel Shop; A. Lee Wright, Account Sales Engineer-Central Region; Mitchell G. Reeves, Sheet Metal Helper-Steel Shop and Charles F. Buck, Sheet Metal Helper-Steel Shop.

WE'RE ON THE MOVE . . . In case you haven't been able to find them — Personnel and Industrial Relations have moved to the north half of the main floor, R & D Building. The Credit Union is now located on the first floor of R & D. (Use the entrance on the north wall.) Abrasive Sales is now located on the north half of the second floor, R & D and tomorrow, PFP and Blastrac Sales will move to the south half of the main floor, R & D. All phone numbers remain the same.

AND FROM THE WORLD OF SPORTS . . .

WANTED — Two teams for Wheelabrator's Tuesday night Bowling League. Interested? Contact Gene Kempner, Machine Shop; Ben Trytko, Stockroom; or Bill Fore, North Shipping.

WFI's "good sport," Gene Tarabek, was voted the "Sportsmanship-of-the-Year" Award by fellow league members — American Bowling League, Elkhart.

THE CHAMPS . . .

JERRY McNAMER, Manager of Manufacturing, emerged the victor after three hours of intensive competition during the first annual tennis tournament recently held by office personnel. Coming in a close second was BO KLINK, Director-International Operations.

MANAGER OF COST ACCOUNTING Will Glusac (with more than a little help from wife Stefanie) paddled to a first place victory in the annually-held River Run. Winning time in their category — Mixed Pair — was 1:28.0.

IT WAS A REALLY BIG SHOW . . . Over 18,000 foundrymen attended the 82nd American Foundrymen's Casting Congress and Exposition at Detroit's Cobo Hall. Our 2100 sq. ft. display, featuring our SandSaver® System, (photo right) was one of the largest exhibits at the show. (photos below) Mishawaka and field personnel may be smiling, but with one of the most active booths at the exhibit, it was five days of intense "show and tell" for the workers.

HANGING COMMITTEE TO "HANG" . . .

The Art Display Committee's subcommittee, appropriately named "Hanging Committee," finalizes plans to display employees' original works of art. (l to r) Carol Harris, Tony Peters, Jim Donnelly, Marcia Batten and Del Tenney.

PROJECT BUSINESS CONTINUED . . . WFI's Annual Report — kiddy and standard versions — was used by Gerry Bank to highlight the "Financial Statements" unit he recently presented to Steve Rethlake's ninth grade Social Studies class at Marian High School. Footnote: "Teacher" Rethlake is the son of "Marketing Executive Secretary" Rethlake (Mary Lou, that is!).

THE TROUBLE WITH luxuries is that by the time you save enough money to buy them, they have become necessities.
