C. L. Sullivan, co-chairman of the Wheelabrator-Frye United Way Committee, reminds us that the committee was formed as a year-round committee to assist all Wheelabrator employees in obtaining services needed from any of the United Way agencies. In the future, information will be

HESSCO JOINS THE WFI FAMILY . . . A new company, Hessco Industrial Supply Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of WFI, will act as a distributor of our steel abrasives in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Tennessee. We welcome Fred Hester, Bill West, Jerry Ellison and Ned Landers to the Wheelabrator family sales team.

ORGANIZATION — FIELD SALES . . . Effective October 1 Joe Hoffman was promoted to the position of Account Sales Manager-Southern Region. Joe will be responsible for the sale of all after-market products in the region through both our direct Account Sales Engineers and distributors. Replacing Joe as the Equipment Sales Engineer-Southern Region is Tom Warren. For the past year Tom has served as an Account Sales Engineer-Southern Region. Joining our company to assume an Account Sales Engineer position is Don Ruhl. Don is a graduate of Dominican College and has taken advanced work at Marquette University. Gentlemen: Good luck in your new assignments!

THE UNITED NATIONS IS AT WORK . . . At work to: Overcome disease (World Health Organization has eliminated smallpox, for example); overcome hunger (International Fund for agricultural development); help in economic underdevelopment (World Bank helps in developing new markets overseas — more jobs for U.S. citizens); help develop a peaceful world! UN DAY — October 24.

posted on plant bulletin boards regarding the services that can be obtained from the United Way.

If help is needed, contact a committee member (committee names are already posted on the boards). All information will be kept confidential. Only the committee person that you contact will know your name since all cases will be assigned and known only by their case number.

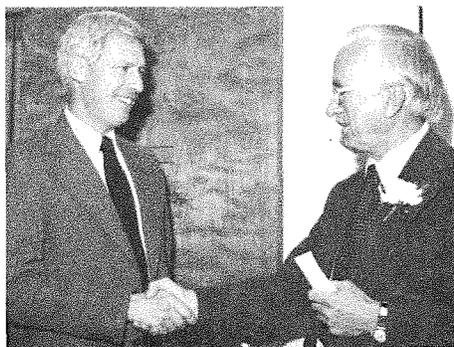

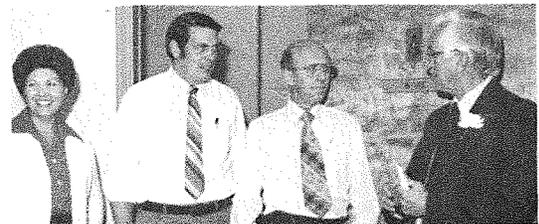

IT'S WORKING FOR ALL OF US

OH, HOW THEY DANCED . . . The music of "Now and Then" was enjoyed by our employees attending the annual Fall Dinner Dance held October 6, as evidenced in the following photo story.

TONY PETERS — ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE — RETIRES . . .

Farewells and good wishes were extended to Tony Peters on the occasion of his retirement from Wheelabrator, October 10. Art Director Peters shared his talent with us over the past 14 years. (Editor's Note: When news is scarce, happiness is — an Art Director who can compensate for the Editor's lack of copy!) SO LONG, TONY!

THE LAST GOODBYE . . . for (r to l) Mallory, Peters and Tenney. (Lunch at Pat's will never be the same!)

HALF OF HAPPINESS is getting what you want; the other half is wanting what you get.

On The SPORT SCENE...

RETIRING ARTIST PETERS admires the farewell card executed by his successor, HAROLD PAUL. (Harold: Tony joins us in welcoming you to Marketing Services and Wheelabrator.)

THE MIDDLE YEARS mark that quiet, peaceful, pleasant period between completing the children's college education and starting to help with the first grandchildren. The middle years usually last from three to six months . . .

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SPONSORS BUS TRIP . . . Sunday, October 28 is the day — Lions vs Bills is the game — Pontiac Stadium is the place. See your area AA rep for reservations. The $40 per couple cost includes transportation (buses leave South parking lot at 7 AM), tickets and dinner at Win Schuler's in Jackson.

DISCOUNT TICKETS AVAILABLE . . . Available from AA reps are discount tickets ($2.25 each) for the University Park Mall Theaters. This good deal is a great idea for Christmas stocking stuffers — especially if you have a family of teenagers!
