CREDIT UNION PAYS 7% DIVIDEND . . . The Wheelabrator-Frye Inc. The dividend will be paid by a credit to all share accounts and will be reflected on the first quarter statement to be mailed to all shareholders.

CONTRARY TO POPULAR OPINION, the Management Club meeting being held Saturday is not to celebrate the mutual birthdays of our two Jerry's — McNamer and Margraf, that is! However, we will go on record to wish Jerry and Jerry a very happy birthday!

TIME TO TELL TAX TALES . . . "It's a great country, but you can't live on it for nothing," observed Will Rogers.

Well, that's true, but one taxpayer had a different point of view as noted in the following sad story:

"Don't be so stingy," said the IRS man to the taxpayer. "You can't take it with you."

"With me?" he cried. "I can't even keep it while I'm here."

Throughout history, other weary taxpayers have voiced similar complaints:

"Some loyal Americans think there should be more taxes on paychecks. Others, many others equally loyal, think there should be more checks on taxes."

— G. J. Dubovik

"When there is an income tax, the just man will pay more and the unjust less on the same amount of income."

— Plato

"The power to tax involves the power to destroy."

— Chief Justice Marshall

"An income tax form is like a laundry list — either way you lose your shirt."

— Fred Allen

"In levying taxes and in shearing sheep, it is well to stop when you get down to the skin."

— Austin O'Malley

"A citizen can hardly distinguish between a tax and a fine, except that the fine is generally much lighter."

— G. K. Chesterton

"If taxation is a badge of free men, (be assured) that poor people of this country are covered all over with the insignia of free men."

— William Jennings Bryan

"Our Constitution is in actual operation; everything appears to promise that it will last; but nothing in this world is certain but death and taxes."

— Benjamin Franklin

"The imposition of taxes has its limits. There is a maximum which cannot be transcended."

— Henry Clay

"Taxation is the art of so picking the goose as to secure the greatest amount of feathers with the least amount of squawking."
