NEED AN ASSIST? Wheelabrator offers an employee Personal Assistance Program. Often what begins as a small personal problem mushrooms into a gigantic problem which can prevent an employee from doing his/her job. These problems, whether simple or complex, may include drug abuse, parent-child relationships, emotional turmoil, retirement fears, financial obligations, legal and marital difficulties, physical ill health or problem drinking. When an employee is faced with such personal problems, job performance is usually affected. Seventy (70%) per cent of all personal problems affecting job performance can be traced to the abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

Our Personal Assistance Program — available to all employees — was put into action last Fall. If you would like more information, please see your Supervisor or call Chuck Chiponis, Labor Management Services, at 287-1879.

NEW FACES . . . Welcome to Sidney W. Scott, Engineer-Special Blast Design.

SIGNIFICANT SALE . . .

Wheelabrator teamwork will once again come into play as we prepare an order for two pipe cleaning machines for shipment to Saudi Arabia, August 10. (photo above) In Mishawaka last week, was Bill Miller, (second from left), Manager — Ahtari Pipe Coating Terminal, Saudi Arabian Overseas Service, to review details of the equipment order with (l to r) Brown Sanders, Manager-Equipment Products; Del Evans, Southern Regional Manager and Harold Schulte, Director-International Engineering.

REVIEW MEETING HELD IN MISH . . . Service Supervisors traveled to Mishawaka recently to meet with personnel from Engineering, Quality Control, and Customer Service to review problem jobs, standard turnkey procedures, and to receive installation and start up training in PFP's new Circlon Vibrators.

THE BOYS FROM BLASTRAC . . . A Blastrac District Managers meeting was held recently to determine the markets and equipment needs for the 80's. At the conference table (l to r): Bill Berger, Operations Supervisor; Gunter Schadwill, Eastern District Manager; Bill Butler, Blastrac Division Manager; Richard Dotson, Central District Manager; Randy Schleisman, Southern District Manager and Sandy Dincolo, Western District Manager.

APPOINTMENTS . . . John Mow has been appointed to the position of Manager-Shipping, Receiving, Warehousing and Transportation. John, who has served as Director of Special Projects in Manufacturing, holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in Industrial Engineering from Purdue University. Good luck in your new assignment, John!

ON CAMERA . . . Second shift Nurse Lois Johnson and friends upon her farewell from Wheelabrator last Friday.

THE EMPHASIS IS KIDS . . .

Throughout the year, Wheelabrator and its employees are involved in various community projects. This Spring is no exception. With the cry to "play ball," the bargaining unit and Wheelabrator will once again sponsor Little League teams. Proudly displaying the plaque which represents their sponsorship of a Southwest Little League team are bargaining unit members (l to r): Tom Hess, Eddie Ballard, Bob Kibbe, Bob Sloan, Dan White and George Scott. (For the record: 995's sponsored team has been Southwest Little League champs for the past two years!)

PUZZLE CORNER . . .

The following brain teaser submitted by Ted Zielinski:

A farmer buys 100 animals for $100. Cows are $10 each, sheep $3 each and pigs 50¢ each. How many of each did he buy?

Solution to last week's puzzle:

CONGRATULATIONS to Bruce Novak, Staff Accountant, who has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Michiana Chapter - National Association of Accountants.

MORE AND MORE people each day are taking up tennis for fun and exercise. It's a sport that knows no age limits. Young and old alike get involved. Before long many are fanatics and the rest can be classified as enthusiasts. These good folks have a special set of their own Ten Commandments. They're fun — but they're real. Here they are for your enjoyment . . . and your education:

Ten Commandments for Tennis Players

1. Thou shalt have no sport other than tennis.
2. Thou shalt remember thine appointed court time and put nothing before it.
3. Thou shalt honor thy backhand as instructed by the pro.
4. Thou shalt not bear false witness as to when thou wast last the provider of new tennis balls.
5. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord in vain when thy shot hitteth the tape and faileth to fall over.
6. Thou shalt not destroy thy racquet after having lobbed directly to thine opponent at the net.
7. Thou shalt not commit a double fault at set point.
8. Thou shalt not steal thy neighbor's overhead smash.
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's court time, nor his or her partner.
10. Thou shalt not use four letter expletives when thou has caused an easy volley to be ensnared by the net.
