WHAT IS A SALESMAN? (Reprinted from Executives' Digest, May, 1980.)

What manner of man is the American salesman?

He is a showman who gains and holds the attention of uncooperative people.

He is a counselor who promotes and maintains good will.

He is an organizer who plans and programs his work systematically.

He is a man of action who makes decisions and assists others in deciding.

He is a diplomat, skilled at removing obstacles and winning favorable agreement.

He is a superb teacher and communicator who imparts information in a clear and vivid manner.

He is a supreme persuader who brings conviction out of opposite viewpoints.

He is a scientist who analyzes needs, solves problems and reveals values.

He is a practicing psychologist who awakens and guides human emotions and motives.

And, finally, he is a hero who keeps going when, to the average person, every next step seems to be a complete waste of effort and time.

PUZZLE CORNER ...

Ted Zielinski submits the following fourstar brain sharpener:

If I were to tell you that . . .

When the day before yesterday was referred to as "the day after tomorrow," the day that was then called "yesterday" was as far away from the day we now call "tomorrow" as yesterday is from the day on which we shall be able to speak of last Monday as "a week ago yesterday"...

On what day of the week would I be making this statement???

Solution to last week's puzzle:

One sheep, five cows, 94 pigs. (For the record, Inspection's Dan Maloney was the first to call in the correct answer.) ATTENTION MANAGEMENT CLUB MEMBERS: Please note the following change of time for the First Annual Management Club Picnic scheduled for Sunday, July 6, Rose Park, Mishawaka: Noon til 5:00 p.m. NOT 1:00-6:00 p.m., as previously announced. The picnic lunch will be served promptly at Noon. Please don't forget your covered dish and place setting.

CALLING THE SHOTS was Jud McKinley during this week's lunch-time tennis match between Purchasing's Vicki Stringer and Frank Williams. The gallery, comprised of Kay Catanzarite, Linda Goodrich and Lucy Winnie, did their best to cheer Vicki on to victory but, alas, Frank was the victor — 3-0. Frank, the good sport that he is, treated the crew to banana splits! (Ladies: There will be no more booing of Frank at future tennis matches!)

THE MAJORITY is made up of those who complain about their officials after they've let the minority elect them.

Published weekly by and for employees of Materials Cleaning Systems Division.
